KOSHER MEAL PLAN OPTIONS FALL 2022 - SPRING 2023

For Rutgers University Housing & Commuter Students

First-Year & Second-Year students residing in Rutgers Housing will be exempt from the Rutgers dining plan when they sign up and pay Chabad House directly for either the Complete 255 plan or the Traditional 225 plan. Juniors & Seniors in Rutgers Housing can sign up for the the Flex 160 plan or Part Time 80 plan. Once we receive registration & payment, Rutgers Dining Services will be informed and they will adjust your bill. Students living off-campus, commute, may choose any plan that best suits their needs. Please fill out the meal plan registration form and submit to our office with full payment or register and pay online through our website. Please note that these rates are per semester - each semester can be paid for separately for the Fall and Spring. Rutgers University may allow students to combine the Chabad Meal Plan with their Meal Plan, however, please be aware that Kosher food is not offered at any Rutgers dining hall.

 Please do not fill out the meal plan registration form if you are a Chabad House resident. ALL Chabad House dormitory residents are required to sign up for either the Complete 255 or Traditional 225 plans only. You must select and pay for the meal plan as part of your housing contract.

• We plan on returning to buffet service, however, in the event of a Covid-19 outbreak, meals will be switched to pre-packaged ready “to go” containers.

• All students and guests are required to clear their table and deposit all plates, cups, silverware etc., in the proper location before leaving the dining hall.

• There are no outside foods or drinks allowed in our dining hall area at any time.

• As per Rutgers University guidelines, the wearing of face coverings in all public areas of Chabad House is highly recommended regardless of vaccination status, unless the student is eating/drinking.
